

Bulldogs defeated by Znojmo Eagles

Dornbirn/10-07-2016 - Their home game weekend in the Erste Bank Eishockey Liga didn't start off as planned for the Dornbirner Eishockey Club, who lost Friday night's match against the HC Orli Znojmo 3:4.

Discipline was lacking at the beginning of this seventh round match: The Bulldogs' Martin Grabher Meier and Olivier Magnan as well Znojmo's Andre Lakos spent some time in the penalty box fairly quickly. The guests took advantage of the consequent three against four situation, and scored their first goal by Teddy Da Costa (3./pp). With two more goals - Patryk Wronka (17.) on a breakaway, and Tomas Plihal (18.) from close range - Znojmo made for a comfortable 3:0-lead at the end of the first period.

Smart Eagles

In the second period, with the notable score in mind, the Eagles were playing cleverly, and able to defend their lead. The Bulldogs could not get the puck in for a long time, neither five on five, nor in a powerplay. Eventually, with only 23 seconds left in the second period, Dustin Sylvester (40.) took heart and succeeded from the blue line. Chris D'Alvise (43./pp) took care of the 2:3 at the beginning of the third, all by himself, on a powerplay - shooting the puck in the top corner, unstoppable for Znojmo's goalie. The following goal was a powerplay one as well, but this time for the Czechs: Sean McMonagle (45./pp) put the visiting team two goals ahead again. When Florian Hardy got replaced by a sixth skater with about two minutes left in the game, Chris D'Alvise (59.) was able to add one more strike for the home team. The 4:3-victory of the Czechs couldn't be prevented anymore though.
